1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 6 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Osada et al. (U.S. Patent No. 7,148,925).

With regard to claim 6, Osada describes a pre-processing means for treating a plurality of chromatically identical color imaging signals with keeping color space of the color filter contained in a predetermined region as one unit to compute spatial frequency components in the one unit with a linear operation (see figures 1 and 5, element 36c, and refer for example to column 11, line 16 through column 12, line 3); a quantizing section for quantizing the spatial frequency components (see figure 1, element 38 and refer for example to column 12, lines 4-16); and a coding section for coding the quantized spatial frequency components (see figure 1, element 38 and refer for example to column 12, lines 4-16).

As to claim 11, Osada describes wherein the pre-processing means rearranges the chromatically identical color imaging signals in the color imaging signals into a predetermined arrangement format and then effects the computation processing of the spatial frequency components (refer for example to column 11, lines 36-67).

3. Claims 1-5 and 12-13 are allowed.

4. Claims 7-10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of the record fail to teach or suggest singly and/or in combination an image compression apparatus and system for processing color imaging signals outputted from a solid-state imaging device having a color filter having a predetermined color arrangement disposed on a light receiving surface thereof, the image compression apparatus and system comprising a pre-processing means for effecting preprocessing to generate color imaging signals of locations spatially equivalent to the relative locations of pixels on the color filter from the color imaging signals outputted from the solid-state imaging device and to convert the color imaging signals into a predetermined arrangement format color by color with keeping color space of the color filter so as to generate image data groups, and an image compression means comprising a frequency converting section for treating an image data group arranged in the predetermined arrangement format as one unit to compute spatial frequency components within the one unit, a quantizing section for quantizing the spatial frequency components, and a coding section for coding the quantized spatial frequency components as prescribed for in the claimed invention.

Art Unit: 2624

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Tagami et al., Udagawa et al., Niwamoto, Hung and Koshiba all disclose systems similar to applicant's claimed invention.

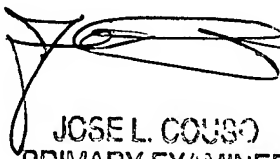

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jose L. Couso whose telephone number is (571) 272-7388. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday from 6:30 to 3:00.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Matthew Bella, can be reached on (571) 272-7778. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is (571) 273-8300.
